1. There are five repair shops for the Rumanian Navy at Sulina, together with a command building, a quarters building, a canteen, an assembly hall, an open air assembly area and several magazines.
2. The place is staffed by 250 or 260 men. These include a command group of 22 to 24, ten supply personnel, a staff platoon, 30 men, a guard group of 25 men, two assembly groups of 40 and 35 men, and a technical training group of 75. Most of them are anti-Communists.
